2002 Membership Dues: Regular Members: $20 (150 Kč)
 Student Members: $8 (80 Kč)
 Institutional Members*: $75 (750 Kč)

Previous issues of the Czech Language News have inadvertently listed membership for Czech members as 200Kč, when the correct amount was 150Kč. For those who have already paid 200Kč, NAATC will credit the extra 50Kč toward the next year's membership.

Please make checks payable to NAATC--Brown University. Donations are welcome.

*Institutional membership includes one free advertisement (half page), a mailing list of NAATC, and five copies of the Czech Language News.

The North American Association of Teachers of Czech is not restricted to language teachers and is open to any interested member. Thank you for your interest in the NAATC.

Czech Language News

Czech Language News is a newsletter published by the North American Association of Teachers of Czech. This newsletter is currently housed at the Department of Slavic Languages, Brown University, and serves the diverse and growing Czech language community as a forum for information on research, teaching and organization of Czech language instruction. It is intended to contribute to the promotion of interdisciplinary and international cooperation as well as the integration of theoretical and applied aspects of language study.

CzLN is an open exchange of information and ideas, and the editors welcome ideas and submissions for inclusion in the next issue.

Editors: Neil Bermel, Masako U. Fidler, and Alexander Levitsky
Associate Editor: Margo Ballou

Editorial Board: David Short (Book Review Editor), Charles E. Townsend,
Michael Heim, Susan Kresin, Jiří Stejskal, Karen von Kunes.

Acknowledgments: The publication of this issue of CzLN was supported in part by funds from the Department of Slavic Languages at Brown University.

Submissions

Czech Language News welcomes submissions of articles, comments, letters to the editor, advertisements, etc. Contributions may be written either in English or in Czech, and should include the name of the author and his/her affiliation. Please include a diskette with your submission to save us time with retyping. The size of the diskette should be 3.5"; both IBM and Macintosh format are accepted, although Macintosh is preferred. Please indicate on the diskette label the type of the operating system and word processor you are using. You can contact the editor at the address shown on the previous page or send an e-mail message to: Masako_Fidler@brown.edu
